Appy Hour Digital Support – 3:30 p.m. – Indian Trail Library, 4909 W. Barnes. Do you need help with your electronic device? We can help you modernize your online presence, understand your smartphone, learn Microsoft programs or download applications to your tablet.

Navigating Your Credit World – 5:30 p.m. – Shadle Library, 2111 W. Wellesley. This program from SNAP - Spokane Neighborhood Action Partners - will help you establish new credit, improve existing credit or repair bad credit. We'll help you work on a budget and check your credit score.

I am a Town: Spokane Poetry Project with Laura Reed – 6 p.m. – Downtown Library, 906 W. Main. In this workshop, we will write poems about specific places in Spokane that are significant to us because of the memories we have attached to them. The class will include example poems and a generative exercise as well as the chance to share your work with a community of writers.

Downloading eBooks – 6 p.m. – East Side Library, 524 S. Stone. Did you know you can download library books to your smartphone, tablet or eReader? Come join us for an overview of the Library's eBook services. If time allows we'll work with you on setting up your device, so bring it along.

The Addams Family – 6 p.m. – South Hill Library, 3324 S. Perry. A stranger shows up on the Addams doorstep, claiming to be long-lost Uncle Fester. It appears, however, that Lloyd is a ringer, in cahoots with an attorney to strip the Addams family of their fortune. In their usual against-the-grain fashion, the Addams Family seems to delight in the possibility that they're being hoodwinked-indeed, not even kidnapping or death threats dampen the Addams clan's joy of living (or should we say dying?). Rated PG-13.

Wednesday, October 19, 2016
