Spokane Public Library to Host National Voter Registration Day

Spokane, Washington – In partnership with the League of Women Voters (LWV), the Spokane Public Library will be participating in ‘National Voter Registration Day’ on September 27th at the Downtown branch from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. and at various times throughout the day at Lewis and Clark High School. Senator Billig and Senator Baumgartner will be joining the library and the LWV at Lewis Clark High School to assist with registration at 11:00 a.m.

Citizens can stop by at any time to register to vote, change voter address, and receive information on upcoming election dates. “The Library is a neutral gathering place where all are welcome,” said Spokane Public Library Executive Director Andrew Chanse, “I can’t think of a better place to host a non-partisan event that encourages citizens to activate their right to vote.”

“The League of Women Voters of the Spokane Area is committed to supporting the key structures of our democracy through our work in voter registration and education. Working to make democracy work for all, we are honored to partner with the Spokane Library on National Voter Registration Day helping to register new voters,” stated Beverly Austin League of Women Voters Board member.
