June 2016 CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Spokane, Washington – All Spokane Public Library programs are free of charge and disabled access is available.

Saturday, June 18, 2016

Indian Trail Crafternoon – 2 p.m. – Indian Trail Library, 4909 W. Barnes. We're opening our meeting room to crafters to enjoy each other's company as we work! Bring your project and your conversation, and we'll offer light refreshments. We'll also have adult coloring pages and a simple craft available for those who don't bring a project. This month: decorate a pair of flip-flops! You provide the flip-flops, we'll provide the fabric.

Young Wings: The Healing Power of Pigeons – 2 p.m. – South Hill Library, 3324 S. Perry. Spokane author and award-winning documentary filmmaker Jim Jenner will share his latest film, and new novel, which document the surprising power of pigeons to affect children in positive ways. Jenner presents diverse examples from an alternative school in Toppenish, a youth prison in England, and many others in addition to his young adult novel. An eye-opening lecture for any parent or educator trying to bring nature into the lives of urban children.

Make Your Own Healthy and Delicious Jams and Jellies – 2 p.m. – East Side Library, 524 S. Stone. It's strawberry season! And there's more wonderful fruit to come throughout the summer. Learn how to make your own healthy and delicious jams and jellies. You'll get to sample some jam, as well! With food preservation specialist Anna Kestell. An Exercise Your Mind event.

Goosebumps – 2 p.m. – Downtown Library, 906 W. Main. A teenager teams up with the daughter of young adult horror author R. L. Stine after the writer's imaginary demons are set free on the town of Madison, Delaware. Rated PG, 143 minutes.
