Spokane Municipal Community Court Statistics as of January 2017

On December 8, 2013, the unique and innovative criminal justice initiative known as Community Court opened its doors courtesy of the benevolence of the Downtown Spokane Public Library – a cooperative collaboration that has resulted in low barrier access to social service providers of every variety.

Since Spokane Community Court's inception:

- 1,130 individuals have been referred to Community Court on cases arising out of low level criminal law violations, quality of life crimes in the downtown corridor
 - 335 participants have graduated from the Community Court program. Graduation requires:
 - Engagement with recommended service providers, such as behavioral health counseling, enrolling in health insurance, obtaining a primary physician, and housing assistance
 - Completion of 8 hours of community service in the downtown core
- 900 bus passes have been provided by Catholic Charities
- Providence Consistent Care assisted 121 individuals in obtaining primary physicians and reducing visits to the emergency department
- Over 10,000 lunches have been provided to both participants of Community Court and library patrons demonstrating a need
- 143 participants obtained housing and case management assistance through collaboration between Better Health Together, Volunteers of America, Catholic Charities, and SNAP
- Lion's Club distributed 223 pairs of reading glasses to individuals in need, and scheduled 128 eye exams to obtain prescription glasses
- Over 2,700 downtown community service hours have been completed by Community Court participants
 - This totals an investment of over $25,000 in physical labor benefitting both the City of Spokane and downtown businesses
- Skills'kin has enrolled approximately 65 participants for payee services
- At least 50 participants have been referred to the Dental Emergencies Needing Treatment (DENT) program
- Roughly 2,700 individuals with no criminal charges accessed provider services offered at Community Court on Mondays
- 112 individuals avoided 60-90 days in jail on nonviolent misdemeanor warrants via one of the three Warrant Fest events hosted by Community Court
