Mr. O’Malley said it will be in a similar style and it is still in the design phase. Mr. Kershner asked about the monument signage. Mr. O’Malley said monument signs are visible to passing motorists. Mr. Kershner asked if Central will get a monument sign. Ms. Donovan answered it will not receive one and it will have signage on each side of the building. Mr. Kershner asked how “Central Library” looks on the marquee sign. Mr. O’Malley said motorists will see either “Central” or “Library” depending on their view of the sign.

Mr. Walker shared Shadle Park will start the substantial completion process with a punch list next week, and this process will start at Liberty Park and The Hive™ in a few weeks. EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR’S REPORT
Mr. Chanse explained the Library is looking to purchase new 24/7 Library kiosks, which are different from the kiosk at West Central Community Center. Potential areas for these kiosks include Foothills Drive/Nevada, Shiloh Hills, Eagle Ridge, and near the VA Hospital. At The Hive™, we are taking applications for the Artist in Residency positions. A new partnership with StartUp Spokane was announced with Business Librarian Mark Pond.

Mr. Chanse highlighted some of the work the Library is doing in the realm of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. The DEI team is working on a mission statement to measure success. The Intercultural Development Inventory was opened to the entire organization.
Work surrounding collection development has ensued to prevent unnecessary moving when Indian Trail and South Hill close. The STAR of the month goes to Peter Anderson, Sophie Strom, and Thomas Herrlinger. Mr. Chanse highlighted the opening dates for new library locations. The Friends of the Library set up shelves at some locations for people to access books for sale. The new City Administrator will attend the next board meeting to introduce himself. The Governor lifted the mask mandate in Washington State and we are following CDC guidelines. Ms. Hemingway asked if we are moving out of NorthTown mall. Mr. Chanse explained the interest from City Council to stay but usage at that location is low and expensive. Mr. Kershner asked about the size of the new kiosks. Mr. Chapin said they are smaller than the one we have now, and they are all-weather. Mr. Kershner asked if Northeast Spokane was still an option for kiosks. Shiloh Hills would be in that region. No further questions.
