CHAIRMAN’S REPORT
None

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR’S REPORT
Mr. Chanse is making community connections with local organizations to see how we can better partner in the community and to get a better understanding of post-covid business of other organizations. The next DEI book discussion will cover We Can’t Talk About That at Work in the beginning of May. Last week was National Library Week and we celebrated National Library Worker’s Day on April 8th at each location. STAR Spotlight went to Sophie, Kiki, and Abdul for their outreach at the Yokes Latah 24/7 Library Kiosk. The in-house security team onboarded at Central Library. There is a proposal from the Mayor’s office for a Levy toward public safety. Ms. Hemingway asked if all the security staff are new. Mr. Chanse explained two guards were hired on from our contractor Securitas and there is one new person. Ms. DeJaegher asked if we have done additional outreach for the library kiosks. Mr. Chanse explained there will likely be more outreach events. If the timeline is correct, work on the STA Five Mile Kiosk will start next month. No further questions.

COUNCIL LIASION REPORT
Mr. Dillon explained there will be a public safety meeting at Liberty Park Library following this Board meeting. Mr. Dillon shared some information that came out of the budget discussions from the City and conversations around public safety. There will also be a potential Parks Levy around the same time as the Mayor’s public safety levy. Mr. Dillon also shared additional updates from council recently. No further questions.
COMMUNICATIONS REPORT
Ms. Donovan shared Marketing updates in March including the story about the Thrive International partnership, event promotion videos with help from City Cable 5, and a March Madness bracket for Washington books and/or authors. Ms. Noble ran the Library Giving Day campaign on April 3 to benefit Spokane Public Library Foundation. Ms. Donovan covered the popular websites from the month and other information. No further questions.

PROGRAMMING REPORT
Mr. Johnson shared programming highlights from March and how the value score fluctuated. There were 402 programs last month. Programming highlights included a conversation on racism resulting from an email from Wilson Elementary last month, toddler storytime play and learn, music lessons, and more. No further questions.
