Friends of the Spokane Public Library to host book sale April 7-9

Spokane, Wash. – Buy books for as low as $1 at the Friends of the Library (FOL) Book Sale April 7-9 at Shadle Park Library (2111 W. Wellesley).

- April 7 (Member Presale): 3:30pm-6:30pm
- April 8: 10am-4:30pm
- April 9: 10am-1pm

The FOL member presale starts the evening of April 7 for members to have a first look at what is available. Anyone can become a member on the evening of April 7 on-site for $10 to get an exclusive first look at the items available. The sale will officially open for free to the public on April 8 and 9 with no FOL membership required.

On Saturday, April 9, guests can buy a bag of books for just $3 or a box of books for $6.

“After two years of not having book sales, the Friends of the Spokane Library is thrilled to once again host one,” said Brenda Kochis, head of the Friends of the Spokane Public Library. “We will be at the newly renovated Shadle Park Library and are excited to see many of you.”

Proceeds from the sale go to the Friends of the Spokane Public Library.
