

Job Title: Music Educator

Location: Spokane Public Library

Position Type: Part-Time (about 9 hours per week)

Salary: $25 per 30min lesson, up to $13,500 annually

Application Deadline: Open until filled.

About Us:

Spokane Public Library is committed to fostering creativity and lifelong learning within our community. We are excited to announce a new opportunity for a Music Educator to join our team and inspire the next generation of musicians.

Position Overview:

We are seeking a dynamic and talented Music Educator to provide high-quality music instruction to our patrons. The ideal candidate will be proficient in teaching guitar, bass, ukulele, drums, and beginner piano, with a solid foundation in music theory. This position offers a unique opportunity to make a meaningful impact by sharing your passion for music with learners of all ages and skill levels.

Key Responsibilities:

- Deliver engaging and comprehensive music lessons in guitar, bass, ukulele, drums, and beginner piano.
- Create customized lesson plans tailored to the individual needs and goals of each student.
- Foster a supportive and inclusive learning environment that encourages creativity and exploration.
- Provide guidance in music theory to help students develop a well-rounded understanding of music.
- Collaborate with library staff to coordinate lesson scheduling, room sharing, and ensure a smooth learning experience for students.

Requirements:

- Proficiency in guitar, bass, ukulele, drums, and beginner piano.
- Strong knowledge of music theory.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Passion for music education and the ability to inspire and motivate students.
- Strong independent initiative and organizational skills.
- Dependability and a commitment to teaching 15 30min lessons per week.
- Scheduling flexibility. Saturdays and Sundays preferred.
- Must be able to pass a background check.

Compensation:

This position offers a competitive compensation of $25 per lesson, $13,500 annually based on the number of lessons taught. Continued employment will be determined based on demand and performance.

How to Apply:

Interested candidates are invited to submit their resume, a cover letter outlining their qualifications and teaching philosophy, and any relevant music teaching experience to smurphy@spokanelibrary.org. Please include "Music Educator Application" in the subject line of your email. The application is open until filled.

Spokane Public Library is an equal opportunity employer. We encourage candidates of all backgrounds to apply.

Join us in bringing the joy of music education to our community and making a positive impact on the lives of our patrons. We look forward to welcoming a passionate Music Educator to our team.
